MIDDLESEX, ss

CAMBRIDGE JUVENILE COURT

COMMONWEALTH

v.

A JUVENILE

MOTION FOR FUNDS

Now comes the juvenile in the above-captioned case and respectfully moves that this Honorable allow the payment of funds in the amount of fifteen hundred dollars ($1500.00) to retain the services of a forensic social worker..

The juvenile states that he is indigent within the meaning of M.G.L. c. 261 sec. 27A. The juvenile further states that said funds are reasonably necessary to assure him as effective a defense to his in his case as he would have if he were financially able to pay. Commonwealth v. Lockley, 381 Mass. 156 (1980).
